morning that he believed the men arrested near Uniontown were not the wanted.

The chief of police and the county troops left at noon today for Lebanon where they will attempt

Britain Proposes Division of Upper Silesian Territory

By Associated Press.

PARIS, May 25.—The latest plan for the settlement of the Upper Silesian controversy, supposedly a British suggestion, is to give Poland and Germany respectively the communes that voted in their favor at the recent plebiscite but to hold the entire territory under control of a special commission for 30 years.

Under the plan this commission would be appointed by the League of Nations and at the end of the 30 year period the population of the region would again be given an opportunity to express their wishes.

Exchanges of views between London and Paris are continuing nonwithstanding the debate in the chamber of deputies and the feeling in French official circles this morning was that the Allies were getting closer together.

The council of ambassadors again took hold of the Silesian question today and decided to send a note to Poland setting forth Germany's promise to close the Silesian frontier and asking Poland, in return, that her frontier was sufficiently shut.

The council also heard the report of experts regarding execution by Germany of her promise to notify the Diesel Motors so as to be serviceable for industrial uses only and not available for submarines. The report being favorable the council decided to extend the time in which Germany must complete these modifications to September 1. Germany's request to be allowed to retain anti-tank rifles was refused.

Brakeman Loses Legs.

Norman A. Jones, a brakeman on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, is in a critical condition at his home at Cumberland as the result of an accident with a locomotive at Hagerstown.
His legs were crushed off below
the knees when he fell from a freight train.

TAX LEVIES FOR CITY TOTAL
53 1/2 MILLS, BESIDES THE HEAD

Levy of $5 on Each Woman
Voter Will Help Replenish
School Fund.

The total millage taxables in this city will be compelled to pay for 1921 will be 53 1/2 mills including school tax and county tax. In addition a poll tax of $5 for every resident of the city over 21 years of age is to be collected. The heaviest levy is by the school district, with the city millage second and the county third.

The taxes for the year will be
School 30 mills plus $5 poll tax
City 15 mills
County 8 1/2 mills

The average man married and owning property will have a net sum to pay when he gets his next statement from the tax collector. One item facing him will be the payment of a $5 poll tax for his wife and possibly any daughters over 21 years of age. This will be in addition to his own $5 tax.
The $5 was not collected from women
last year but under a new law, since they now have a vote they are levied
the same.

The school tax is five mills higher this year by reason of the fact that the Edmunds law regulating salaries of teachers' authorities and requires school boards to levy a separate tax in addition to the millage already in force in order to pay the increased salaries.

ided one-sixth interest in a tract of land in Connellsville township known as Reidmore was tried in Uniontown Tuesday before Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen.

The claim of the plaintiff was based on a sale by the county treasurer in 1892 for unpaid taxes prior to Colonel Held's purchase. After investigating certain records in regard to the sale for taxes counsel for the plaintiff took a voluntary non-suit.

CARS GAIN 32,133
WEEK ENDING 14TH

Increase Attributed to Extra Loading of Coal and Ore.

TOTAL FOR WEEK 750,469

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—An increase of 32,133 in the number of loaded freight cars during the week ending May 14 compared with the previous week was shown by reports made public today by the car service division of the American Railway association. The increase it was explained was due largely to increased loading of coal and ore principally for lake movement.

The decrease in the number of idle coal cars was 21,163. Cars loaded with coal numbered 161,782 or 18,469
more than the preceding week.
The total of all cars loaded in the week was 760,158 which was 92,987 below that for the corresponding week in 1910 but 10,213 more than the corresponding week in 1919.

some slight changes being made in lected from every country associated with the United States in the World War and from every state in the union marked the commencement exercises here today of the New York State Institute of Applied Agriculture.

The international memorial tree was characterized by Charles L. Park, president of the American Forestry association in Washington as typifying the bonding together of those who died and who did not return from the war.

President to Present Diplomas.

School Board Comes Into $5
From Each Not So Assessed.

Figures submitted at the meeting of the Connellsville school board Monday night with A. D. Bixler tax collector in getting the duplicate, showed that personal tax was collected from about 750 or more persons not on the regular assessment lists.

The report would indicate that the assessment by county assessors in this city is not very accurate.

When school board determined to collect a $5 poll tax from every male over 21 years of age last year as a means of meeting increases in salaries of teachers, the work was turned over to the tax collector. The regular assessment lists were checked up with the lists of names secured by the school enumerators and it was found that the latter contained about 900 more names than did the former.

Some claimed these names were those of "floaters" or residents who did not remain in the city long enough to be really called citizens. Mr. Bixler's returns, however, show that of these 900 persons he collected tax from more than 750.

Irish Factions Claim Persecution by the Other in Election.

By Associated Press.

BELFAST, Ireland, May 25.—Wholesale charges of intimidation and persecution during the balloting in Ulster for members of the new northern Irish parliament are being made by both Nationalists and Unionists.

A Nationalist newspaper cites documents of incidents with names in which it declares that Nationalist voters were beaten on their way to the polls or after voting, thus preventing others from voting.

The Unionists claim they were prevented from voting in Nationalist districts. As reports come in from the provinces the number of cases in which children voted yesterday increases. There was only one case anywhere however, which matched that of a child of 2 1/2 years who voted for a candidate in South Belfast.

class from 100,000 to 125,000 popula-ed during the legislative session affects Reading and Erie. The state now has two second class cities, Pittsburg and Scranton, and the census showed Reading over 100,000 and Erie also over that figure. The latter municipalities would have been able

Large Gathering at Opera House for Children's Patriotic Pageant.

DEED OF BEST IN TOWN'S HISTORY

Harry Swartz Injured by Fall When Painting Scaffold Gives Way; Son of James Dillon Stunned by Fall From Tree; Other News of the Day.

Special to The Courier.

MOUNT PLEASANT, May 25.—Every day in the Grand opera house was seen last evening for the patriotic pageant given by the First ward school children. Music was furnished by the First Ward orchestra, assisted by the high school under the direction of Prof. J. Hunter Dumble. Miss Olga G. Stoner, ward teacher, played the piano. The pageant was one of the best home talent plays ever presented in Mount Pleasant. It was given as a Junior Red Cross benefit and the proceeds are for the Near East.

Miss Dorothy Plankin was the Herald of Venus; Time; Annastasia Bricker as the Motherland; Elsie Anderson as Liberty; Margaret Fouat was Justice. The exploring nations were: (Left) Abraham, Spain; Katherine, England; Nettie Engle, France; Fannie Margalla, Holland. The developing sections were: West, Abraham; Zaiden; North, Carlisle; South, Rodger McNaughton; Haverly, Child of the South; Joseph Berenski, Spirit of Lincoln; Louis Laine, Captain; Mary Crossland; Labor; Ward Shaw; Wealth; Lauretta Clark; Spirit of Colonies; Florence Weaver; Inventive Genius; Ruth McClain; Aeroplane; Rose Gordon; Submarine; Esther Gordon; Belgium; Voice of Suffering; Leva Sargent; Victory; Virginia Duncan.

Harry Swartz Injured.
Harry Swartz, employed at the Bryce Brothers glass factory, was painting at the factory on Monday when the scaffold gave way and he fell, alighting on some bricks. He was taken to his main street home where he was unconscious for several hours.

Boy Hurt By Falling.
While playing near his home Monday evening, Kensey Dillon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dillon, fell out of a tree. He alighted on his feet but as he struck the ground he fell back and struck the back of his head. He was badly stunned from the fall but was improving yesterday.

Auto Law Violators Arrested.
State Trooper Wagner arrested a few days in the vicinity of Mount Pleasant and as a result 20 persons were summoned before Justice of the Peace L. S. Rhodes on Monday evening to answer to charges of violating the law governing automobiles. Some had no tag lights, others no headlights and some were without licenses. Eighteen answered the summons. Four were discharged and 14 were sentenced to pay the fine and costs amounting to $12.50 each.

Memorial Day Car Service.
The local committee in charge of the Memorial Day celebration in Greensburg will have three special cars, one for the families of the dead soldiers, to leave at 12:15, and two others, one for the Company E members and one for Legion men and the band. All former service men lying out of town will be furnished lunch free at the Legion rooms.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain
How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food acids, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well. Any disorder of digestion is not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Rigaured Mucosa and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Rigaured Mucosa (in powder or tablet form) never irritates and is harmless to the stomach. Inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of mucous for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion. —Adv.

WHY YOU NEED IRON

Take you strong and "brave" and put the power into your blood to overcome disease germs

PRACTICAL ADVICE ON HOW TO DEVELOP GREAT ENERGY AND ENDURANCE

The food you eat contains carbon. When your food is digested it is absorbed from the intestines into the blood. When the carbon in your food comes in contact with the oxygen carried by the iron in your blood, the carbon and oxygen unite and by so doing they give off tremendous energy, thereby giving you great force, strength and endurance. Without iron your blood carries no oxygen and without oxygen there is nothing to unite with the carbon in your food, so that what you eat does you no good—you do not get any strength from it—it is like putting coal into a stove without a fire. You cannot get any heat unless the coal unites with the fire.

The strongest weapon with which to prevent and overcome colds, pneumonia, kidney trouble, rheumatism, nervous prostration, in fact almost any disease or disorder is plenty of good rich, pure blood, strength, energy and endurance and the greatest energy carrier in the body is iron. Iron, but metallic iron which people usually take, but organic iron like the iron in spinach, lettuce and apples and like the iron contained in a well known and gold standard iron, which may be had from almost any drugist.

If you have been taking medicine without benefit such is no proof that organic Rigaured Mucosa will not help you. At the same time it increases the strength, energy and endurance of weak, nervous, run down folks in two weeks time. It is such an extremely valuable product that even the Pope at Rome writes especially of its merits in a communication to the Pharmacopoeia Normale. It has been used and highly recommended by the most eminent States Senators, Members of Congress, Judges of U. S. Courts, many physicians and prominent men.

Over 1,000,000 people are now using it annually. Satisfactory results are guaranteed or the manufacturer will refund your money. Sold by all druggists in tablet form only.

IN TAILOR-MADES

Little Jacket Feature of New Spring Outfits.

Garment is jaunty and winsome affair of fairly straight and unfitted lines.

Close beside the spring tailleur of classic lines, and girdle of braiding or trimming, there appears this spring that jaunty little dressy suit so unconventional in many ways.

The new little jackets are called by the French "jaquettes" and they are jaunty little affairs of fairly straight and unfitted lines. They end at just about the waistline, unbelted, but left loose and rippling where they are finished.

Dean Patou shows the jacket and that is quite short with a wavy line at the bottom that rather slumps toward the back than otherwise. A suit of this type is made of moroccan crepe in very dark blue faced with silk printed in the designs and colors of a cashmere shawl. The little jacket, by the way, is reversible and is well suited in either role to the little one-piece frock that is designed to be worn with it.

Most of these short coats are made to accompany the one-piece dress rather than the separate blouse with its skirt to match the coat. Sometimes, indeed, the coat buttons to the frock instead of being fastened together, as in the time-honored way with coats either long or short. Often the upper section of the dress is made of some lighter material than the lower section which matches the coat, and again the whole frock may be of a heavy silk, while the coat is of some women fabric matching it in color.

Indeed, at most of the couturiers there are to be seen these two distinct types of short suits for spring—one that is strictly tailored, having a coat that reaches the knees or even below that line, and the other that in some way shows a fanciful little coat of the shorter canon.

KELLY & JONES OUTFIT WILL BE HARD TO DEFEAT

According to indications in the Greensburg City league, the Kelly & Jones team which will play here next Saturday afternoon is no "schock." The outfit won Monday afternoon by the shut-out route, the score being 5-0 over an opposing league team. The K. & J. pitchers proved to be almost invulnerable. Leary allowing but two hits and Bythway being nipped for a single safety.

That the fans in this city are interested in the independents is proven by the baseball talk heard in every shop. The subject will circulate around the Pirates, Giants and Dodgers, and then when the league stuff has been exhausted the next query is concerning the independents. The more thought that is given to next Saturday's game, the more convinced local fans become that the Cokers will show some real form yet this season.

One game that should be a headliner with teams between a class between the Coker Independents and the Young Valley Independents. Fans here refuse to concede the locals are the weaker of the two, and at the opening of the season, they feel that the Valleyites should get a round or two under their belt. The Young team points out that it now has five "under its belt," every game played this season being a victory.

The C. I. C. class team of the First Presbyterian church last night defeated the team from Mr. Osborne's class of the same Sunday school. The score was 5-3 in six innings. The game was played at Fayette field.

The Wheeler Trail Blazers are now organized for baseball and are desiring to play with teams between 12 and 15 years of age. Write Lester Jaynes, manager, Connelville, Pa., R. F. D. to Wheeler, Box 123; or phone 1065-1-15, Bell.

Some scores are being received in this office which do not tell when or where the game has been played and from some of the reports it cannot even be determined what teams are playing. Persons reporting games should write out the names of the team in full, state the date of the game and the place where played. These scores should also be signed.

The Whitney baseball team, a member of the northern division of the C. I. C. Frick Coke company's league, has been going strong, winning 12 straight games and holding a big lead for first place. The Whitney team will probably be signed soon to meet the Connelville Independents.

A number of local men who expect to get into action in the church league may be seen warming up in the evening. The league promises to be a source of a lot of fun.

The Pirates were not able to get to the Giants yesterday and lost the third game of their eastern trip, 5-3. Even if the Pirates should lose today they will return home in first place.

Representing Connelville the game for today with the Young Valley Independents.

WILL STRENGTHEN PHILLIES

Earl Neale and Jimmy Miller are expected to help Donovan's team in Pennant Race.

Earl Neale, former star outfielder of the Cincinnati Reds, photographed in a Philly uniform at the National League Park in Philadelphia. Neale was acquired with pitcher Jimmy Earl Neale.

Ring, by the Phillies in a winter trade. The new formation will greatly strengthen the chances of Bill Donovan's outfit as pennant contenders.

FOUR-EYED CATCHERS.

Spectacular pitchers, outfielders and infielders are being sought for the numerous independent ball teams. The Philadelphia Athletics have a combination of four "four-eyed" catchers. They are: "Doc" Livingston, who has been down for a long time; "Babe" Adams, who is a former Philadelphia player; "Slim" Harris, who is a former Philadelphia player; and "Doc" Livingston, who is a former Philadelphia player.

ROOKIE IS PART OF PASTIME

Instead of Being Personification of Hayseed He is Today Well Educated and Mannered.

Rookies aren't what they used to be. The recruit was once supposed to be and sometimes was the personification of hayseed and ignorance. They furnished entertainment to veterans by their crudeness and things they didn't know about the world as well as baseball. Today practically all rookies are well educated and well mannered.

Many have arrived before they hit the big time in the knowledge of the game. This is due to the caliber of ball played in the minors and to the increasing number of recruits from college clubs.

Most hayseeds blow out of big league ball faster than they blow in. Few of them come up from the hills with bare feet.

Baseball is a man's game now. It has progressed far as regards the mental caliber of those who play it. Yet the word rookie will always stick. It's a part of the pastime.

HAS GIANT PITCHING STAFF

Shortest of Mack's Twirlers is 5 Feet 11 Inches, While Tallest is 6 Feet 6 Inches.

Connie Mack has a pitching staff of thirteen big men. William J. Barrett of Cambridge, Mass., and Charles W. Becker of Philadelphia are the smallest, each is 5 feet 11 inches tall. "Slim" Harris, the Texas star, stands 6 feet 6 inches, being the tallest. Robert K. Hasty is 6 feet 8 inches, and Edward Hommel, the knuckleball expert, stands 6 feet 10 inches.

Captain Fisher, the Princeton baseball captain, is a Baltimore boy. He hits fourth in the batting order.

The slokan in the National league is "Watch Alexander." Grover, the Great, seems greater than ever this season.

Bill Killefer, Cub catcher, has been made a life member of the Theodore Roosevelt Legion post No. 627, along with Theodore Roosevelt, Jr.

Mitchell's Braves are playing smooth ball, but the pitchers are going none too well. They seem to be affected with marvelous wisdom.

One of the things no baseball fan has ever been able to figure out is why the opening of the baseball season is always a signal for a protraction rainy spell.

Penn's baseball team worked the first double squeeze play of the baseball year. That's one reason why big league scouts are shadowing college.

FIRE FIGHTER IS ALL RIGHT AGAIN

Member Pittsburg Fire Department Says Tanline Completely Restored His Health.

"I used to crawl out of bed in the mornings feeling miserable, but now I get up with a smile on my face," declared Edward J. Ruzicki, 68, of 58 Harvard street, Pittsburg, Pa., a popular member of the Pittsburg fire department, in relating his experience with Tanlac.

"For three years before I got Tanlac I felt that life was hardly worth living on account of what I suffered. My nerves were so shattered the least noise would upset me completely, and at night I would roll and toss by the hour unable to sleep, and many a night I got up and walked the floor."

"I had awful headaches that bothered me day and night, all the blood seemed to leave my face and I looked pale and lifeless. I felt had all the time and kept taking medicine in my efforts to find relief, but none of it seemed to reach my case and I got to where I didn't know which way to turn."

"One of the boys at the engine house put me on to Tanlac and that was one of the biggest favors anybody ever did me, for I began to improve right from the start. I have just finished my third bottle and now I am never troubled a particle with nervousness, sleep like a log and wake up every morning feeling fine."

"I never have a headache, the color has come back into my face and my strength has been restored so that I can get about as well as the best of them. Yes, Mr. Tanlac has done what no other medicine ever did for me, restored my health and got me in splendid condition and it will always get a good word from me."—Adv.

NIGHT RIDERS IN NORTH ALABAMA

Trouble is Outgrowth of Farm Tenants' Organization.

CAUSE A REIGN OF TERROR

Readers: Are Drugged From Their Homes and Beaten—Tables Turned on the "Riders" When They Went to Discipline Harry McGowan—Union Has for Purpose the Filing of the Rental Scale for Farms.

"Night riders" have caused a reign of terror in north Alabama. The trouble is the outgrowth of the organization of a "tenants' union" having for its purpose the fixing of a rental scale, which calls for one-third of the crop and one-fourth of the cotton crops to the landowner. Refusal of any tenant farmer to join the union or obey its mandates brings swift punishment. Many have been dragged from their homes and unmercifully beaten.

Conditions in Jackson county ("High Jackson") are declared to be worse than during the dark days of reconstruction following the Civil war. No farmer leaves his home without a shotgun under his arm and probably a .45 Colt on his hip. "Daytime or dark," to quote Mayor Claude Thibault of Stevenson, the storm center of the trouble, "the farmers go armed and they carry their shotguns on the streets of the towns as well as on the lonely country roads."

Governor Kilby has sent 20 special officers into Jackson county but their presence seemed to have no effect and appeals for state militia have been turned down. The county officials and citizens have declared that unless the state takes steps a citizen army will go on the warpath with instructions to shoot to kill.

"Caught a Tartar."

While there had been sporadic outbreaks of night riding during the winter, the trouble reached a climax on February 24, when a band of armed and cowardly horsemen raided the home of Harry McGowan, near Bridgeport. Tenant farmers in this section had received repeated warnings to join the union, and in anticipation of a visit from the night marauders McGowan had asked three neighbors to join him in protecting his home. On the night of the raid McGowan and his friends were on guard, and when a party of masked men appeared and demanded that McGowan come out, the four farmers opened fire which was returned by the night riders about forty shots being exchanged. John Brown, one of the attackers was wounded and captured and later Jodie Beavers, another member of the band was captured, and the two were taken to jail at Stevenson.

The attack on McGowan so aroused his neighbors that friends of the prisoners were removed to Huntsville for safekeeping.

A few nights later the night riders descended on the home of Silas Blevins, a tenant farmer near Stevenson, and five others, who were taken out and beaten.

Called Off.

Following these outrages state and county officers made a raid into the Fabius section, across the Tennessee river from Stevenson and arrested four men identified as night riders and placed them in jail at Stevenson.

The officers were assisted by six citizens and the arrests led to one of the most sinister phases of the trouble yet developed. "Exposed" because the citizens had lent their aid in rounding up the band, 300 armed riders gathered at Widow's Bar, on the Tennessee river, near Stevenson, with the avowed intention of storming the town, lynching the six citizens and liberating the prisoners. Warning was sent to Stevenson and a posse of a hundred determined men was organized. The night riders thereupon called off their expedition.

Next day officers raided the Fabius section, the mountain stronghold of the night riders, and arrested thirteen, four of whom were placed in jail at once, but before the other nine could be brought in, the captors were obliged to fortify themselves in a farmhouse and send for reinforcements.

There are now more than twenty men under arrest in connection with night riding activities, and the officers are continuing the raids.

While leaders of the tenants union have repeatedly denied any connection with the night riding and have condemned lawlessness it is said that the members who reside in the Fabius territory refused to be controlled. This section is reported to be a center for moonshiners, who ply their trade in the fastnesses of Sand Mountain and they are bringing the tenants' union into ill repute.

Use More Coconut Fat.

For many years past the world's production of animal fats has been steadily diminishing. Lack of such fat, spoiled famine in Europe during the war, when great quantities of them were withdrawn from human use to make glycerine for high explosives. Even now, and in this country there is an insufficiency of animal fats (as indicated by the price of butter) and to make good the shortage coconut oil is imported in enormous quantities. During the last year 345,737,013 pounds of this oil were brought into the United States.

The oil is largely used in cooking fat, but also in the manufacture of soap, butter, candles, soap and cosmetics. It is said to be an excellent skin conditioner and free of being highly digestible and with the advantage of an agreeable flavor. At ordinary temperature coconut oil is a white butterlike solid.

The new "mash" are dried in the sun before shipment from the tropical countries where coconuts are grown. In this shape the material is called copra. The oil is extracted by pressing. The yield is estimated by some to be 15 per cent of the weight of the nut.

The U. S. Chain Tread gives sufficient traction on all ordinary road surfaces. It is probably the handsomest, and by all odds the most popular of the whole U. S. Pacific Tire line.

Economy rides on U.S. Tires—

If you could get together all the car owners you know, you'd probably find that their tire experiences had been much the same.

Most of them have taken their fling at "job lots," "discontinued lines" and "surplus stocks." Soon or late, nearly all settled back on quality first as the one sound assurance of tire value.

As soon as a man forgets the cut-price tag, and comes to the dealer who concentrates on a full, completely sized stock of U. S. Tires—he learns what it means to get fresh, live tires—not once in a while but every time.

Not merely in the big cities, but in his own home town.

Not merely for the heavy car, but for the medium and light-weight car—a full selection of size, tread and type.

Your U. S. Tire dealer can give you this service because of the service he gets from his neighboring U. S. Factory Branch. There are 92 of these Branches. Each gets its share of U. S. Tires, so that the dealer is always supplied with fresh, live stock.

U. S. Tires sell as fast as they are made. There is no over production. No surplus piled up waiting for a "market."

Wherever you buy a U. S. Tire—you buy a tire of current production, as full of life and value as the day it left the makers.

Youngster is Fast Acquiring Speed and Fine Points of Game That Made Paternal Ancestor Famous Many Years Ago.

It is not very often that an athlete who has reached the height of his form a quarter of a century before is represented in his field by a son equally as good. But that is just the case with Bernie Wefers, Sr., and his son, Bernie, Jr. Twenty-five years ago Bernie, Sr., was the world's greatest sprinter. He held records galore. Including the world's mark for 200 yards, which stood the longest of the world's greatest throughout the years until a few days ago, Charley Paddock, the coast star, was credited with smashing it.

Today Bernie, Jr., is ranked with the best sprinters of the country. Under his father's experienced eye, he is fast, acquiring the speed and fine points of the game that made his dad famous so long ago. At present young Bernie holds many titles, but the question uppermost in the minds of American enthusiasts is "Can Bernie,

Bernie Wefers, Jr.

Jr., regain the laurels which his dad held so many years? Before this summer passes out this question should be answered. For undoubtedly young Wefers will meet Paddock in a race at the 200-yard distance. Daddy Wefers is at present athletic instructor at Fordham university.

Ford Now Producing 4,000 Cars a Day in Plant at Detroit

Ford is building cars at full speed. And, according to an official statement from the factory at Detroit, the demand for Ford cars and trucks still exceeds the output, despite the fact that a new high level of production has been reached.

By the first of May the figured record of daily production were in the neighborhood of 1,000 a day, and the May schedule was set at 10,125 cars and trucks, not including the output of the Ford Canadian plant or any of the foreign assembling plants. The output mounted daily. May 12 brought forth 4,902, the greatest number that have been produced in one day so far this year. Since the month has 25 working days, present indications point to a new high record.

A comparison of Ford production figures for 1920 and 1921 discloses the fact that for April, 1921, the output was greater by 24,544 than for the corresponding month a year ago. The output for May, 1921, will probably overshadow May, 1920, by between fifteen and twenty thousand cars and trucks.

Approximately 45,000 men are at work in the Detroit plant of the Ford Motor company. The factory is operating on full time, 115 days a week and three shifts a day.

"We were never in a better condition than we are right now," said Henry Ford recently.

VANDERBILT, May 21—Members of Emory L. The Junior Order of United American Mechanics, Knights of the Mystic Chain, Odd Fellows and other bodies will attend. Music will be furnished by an orchestra, a quartet and the church choir. Rev. Charles H. Powers, chaplain of the Legion post, will deliver the address, talking for his subject, "The Dangers and Slope of the Republic." This is a community service to which all are invited.

The usual Memorial Day services will be conducted Monday, May 30, at the cemetery. Flags and flowers will be placed in the graves of soldiers.

The Legion post cleared about $550 on the recent musical show. In addition the post has been presented with a lot at But's crossing by George M. Scribner which is valued at about $2,000. This offer, for a home site, is greatly appreciated by the post which will take action at its next meeting. A banquet is being planned in the near future at which it is expected sentiment in the interest of the home will be crystallized.

THE SOISSON.

"LOVE, HONOR AND BEHAVE."—A Mack Sennet comedy in five reels, presenting Ford Sterling, Charles Murray, Phyllis Haver and other well-known comedians, will be shown Friday and Saturday, Charles Murray, hero of a million episodes, will be introduced in a role of legitimate appeal. He will impersonate a "grave" and "savage" judge of the Supreme Court, playing the part with dignity and power. This revolutionary role will be revealed in the opening scenes of the story when justice and romance will come in contact. Marie Prevost, a bride, and George O'Hara, her young husband, appear before "Judge" Murray, carrying to the halls of justice the fragrance of a romance about to die. Here, it is pointed out, is a sincere and authentic picture of dramatic material, treated in a sympathetic and dignified manner, with ever so slight a wink of the eye on the part of the learned jurist. Not long, however, does the plot remain in the atmosphere of staid drama, for the jurist, in order to convince the jealous bride of the innocence of her bridegroom, tells a story of his own experience when he too was a bridegroom; the said story's purport being to discredit circumstantial evidence.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"DIAMONDS ADRIFT."—A story of love and romance, with Erol Williams in the leading role, is today's feature attraction and will also be shown tomorrow. Bob Bellamy is a genial and altogether likeable young man who has not taken the trouble to think of making his own way in the world, his father being a wealthy ship owner. James Bellamy allows his son $200 a month, and is inclined to let him play for a while after being graduated from the university. When Bob runs up $5,000 in bills, however, his father, spending the allowance, the elder Bellamy calls a halt, stops the allowance, and sends Bob to sea as supercargo on the steamer Alexander at $50 a month, telling him he must pay the $5,000 before he can have any further consideration. "Home Brew Johnson," chief mate, somewhat intoxicated, finds a cat on the gunroom wall and brings it aboard. The youngster who owned the cat had snatched his mother's new $30,000 bracelet about its neck, and $5,000 reward is offered for its return. Bob wins the cat from "Home Brew" in a cribbage game. After wild adventures in Mexico, in the course of which he wins and carries away a beautiful bride, Bob returns, claims the reward for the bracelet and re-establishes himself in his father's good graces.

THE ORPHEUM.

"PICCADILLY, JIM."—Owen Moore's first Zelnick picture, is today's feature attraction. The picture is a sparkling comedy, a pictorialization of Pelham Grenville Woodhouse's story, which in its original form appeared in The Saturday Evening Post, and won nation-wide popularity. As a photoplay the story is said to be even funnier than when it was spilling the sides of several million readers a week. Owen Moore lends to the little role a remarkable sense of comic values which serve to draw from each scene every single bit of humor that the author wrote into it, and some times just a wee bit more. The star's portrayal of the light-hearted, care-free, irrepressible youngster who rolls into trouble and rollicks out again is one of the finest bits of acting that the screen has ever known. Zelnick plays opposite Mr. Moore and her work is remarkable. It is by just such sterling work as this that she won the honor that is to be hers in 1921, when she is to be starred in series of Zelnick pictures. The role of the cast is proportionately adequate, the artistic interiors and beautiful exteriors, charm the eye and the direction leaves nothing to be desired. Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday William Hart will be seen in "The Grand of Courage."

WEST END THEATRE.

"WAY DOWN EAST"—The show scene as it was shown in "Way Down East" on the stage years ago, goes into insignificance with respect to the actual blizzard that is shown on the screen at the West End theatre. Tomorrow, for three days, starting next Thursday night and matinee, Friday and Saturday, at each presentation there of the D. W. Griffith screen version of that famous and stirring play. It was held to be that the climax of realism was in that stage snow scene and it was on that feature of the production that some of the long continued popularity of the play was maintained. There is no question as to the reality of the storm. It is a swirling, whirling, mad blizzard, dangerous to those who are not properly clad and a breath-taking event that is genuine.

Lillian Gish comes before the spectator as though on the verge of collapsing, and in a "close up" her face seems frozen and there are icy icicles upon her lids. Then when she is on the ice in the river drifting towards the falls, she lies almost insensate with hair streaming in the icy flood and braving death from exposure to the elements as well as from the luminance of the falls. Brave, indeed, and beautiful too she must have been to await with confidence the arrival across the ice field of Richard Dix, who, prepared to rescue her, goes to take her back across the cakes of ice to the distant shore.

Judge Kephart to Speak. Judge John W. Kephart, of the Supreme court, and a brother of Poppy State Treasurer M. M. Kephart will be the speaker at the dedication and unveiling of the Higgins memorial, at the Higgins memorial, Johnstown, next Saturday afternoon.

America Is Not A "Melting Pot" Declares Prominent Educator

Country is Rather a Democracy of Many Varieties of Human Nature

By Dr. Charles W. Eliot
President Emeritus of Harvard University

I AM glad to express my views about immigration because I think I see that the country is now more open to humane views about immigration than it has ever been before, and is, therefore, more likely to embody a sound policy in legislation.

1. A permanent Federal Immigration Board should be established to study the subject continuously, and make from time to time recommendations for action by Congress and the Administration. This Board should contain no representatives of either capital or labor as such, but should represent the whole public.

2. The Board should have power to direct the distribution of immigration among the different States or regions of the country in accordance with the economic conditions which prevail in the several States or regions, and in conformity with local experience as to the assimilation and best use of each people or race.

3. Careful medical examination of all immigrants should be made before they sail from foreign ports, in order that the diseased, the epileptic, and those liable to become public charges may be prevented from sailing; provided always that aged members or defective members of a family on the whole able-bodied should be allowed to accompany their families.

4. The alien law should be amended so that the Federal Immigration Board should not attempt to regulate the number of healthy and vigorous immigrants to be admitted annually, or within any period, but should consider only the question of what race or of what nationality, and should pay no attention to industrial conditions in America as determining admission of their unskilled laborers. The United States should be kept wide open to able-bodied people fleeing from oppression or bad conditions at their homes, and to people who have come to believe that they may find a freer and happier life in America than they can in their native regions. The nation and naturalized Americans are still competent to exercise this traditional hospitality without suffering at all themselves.

5. Experience within the United States proves that every race which has immigrated to the United States in large numbers is capable of the necessary kind of assimilation, namely, learning the English language, sending their children to American schools, and acquiring the American ideals of public liberty and order. The immigrant races live side by side in the United States in peace and harmony, mix with each other by marriage only very slowly, and gradually acquire the American mode of life. There is no "melting pot." This is a country of many races, many religions, and many varieties of human nature, forming one liberty-loving, stable democracy.

Miss Frances A. Kellon, in her recent work, "Immigration and the Future," presents the true doctrine about assimilation when she says: "When this commercial age has exhausted the measures to be gained by the adventures into the resources of the earth, and we have found a way to assure to all men the necessities and comforts of life, then men's minds may create the age of beauty; in which their thoughts will turn to quality rather than toward quantity, to simplify rather than toward ostentation; to form rather than to fashion policy."

Harvard Head Advocates Abandonment of Literacy Tests for Immigrants

toward bulk; to color and line rather than toward size; to continuity and precision rather than toward loose idealism. Perhaps, then, the best architects will build the shops and homes of immigrants and native born alike, and the best designers will decorate them, and perfection will not be reserved for state occasions, but will find its way into the common things of life.

"Then the ordinary problems of economic assimilation will no longer hold, for we shall have passed from the freedom we have gained by subduing brute force by science and skill by controlling the operations of men by politics and economics, to the conquest of ourselves. Thus we will be freed from petty ambitions, and peace and unity, which the end of the war has so signally failed to achieve, will become realities."

"In the meantime, we must live through the practical age, in which the instruments given to us for use are commercial. We are cheered within the narrow confines of the day's work by the hope that the age which succeeds this will hold the legacy of beauty bequeathed of profits. It is possible that we may have to wait until then for the full assimilation of the immigrants—for it may be that full identity of interest counts less in shaping what money alone has in the usual appreciation of the spiritual qualities of men. It is the reason of this which keeps many in the economic treadmill though they know that the day of perfection is not far from them."

Note.—This article is one of a series by leading authorities who are co-operating in a nation-wide effort to arouse the public to a realization of the need, so emphatically pointed out by Francis J. Kilmer in his recent work, "Immigration and the Future," for an adequate official study of all phases of the immigration problem. The purpose of the study is to provide authoritative information which may serve as a guide in the formulation of a permanent American immigration policy.
